Dear sir:

I am writing to enclose a money order for your fare here. Everybody on the team is glad to know you are coming.

We have played four games to date, and won three, and tied The Grays last night 3-3. Had to call the game because of rain. I am telling you this so you can see the kind of team you are going to play with. They are really a fine bunch of boys, and good ballplayers. In spite of the strength of the team they are all looking forward to you joining.

We are playing The Elites a series this week end (May 17-18-19 and would like to have you here, but I won't be dissappointed if you do not get here by then. We are going to play in Norfolk May 20th and 21st, and Newport News the 22nd and 23rd. If you cannot meet us either of these places, come directly to Newark. We play in Yankee Stadium May 26th. If you come to Norfolk contact us at The Hotel Jr, 1321 Church St.

You can sign your contract when you get here.

Let me know when to expect you please.

Very Truly Yours
